City Recycling Service 101

With the recent unveiling of the new automated recycling program, there has been some confusion on what to do with the new recycling carts. Recycling collection trucks now are equipped with automatic arms that grab the carts allowing the driver to remain in the truck. It is important to put your cart out in a manner that will allow for this procedure to occur. Below are some examples of what to do and not do to ensure quick and proper collection:

Do:

- Co-mingle your recyclables.
- Place the cart curbside every other week.
- Place the cart with the wheels facing the residence.
- Allow at least two feet of space between trash cans and the recycling cart.
- Place the carts at the end of the driveway.

Do

Don't:

- Use old recycling bins.
- Place items in front of the recycling cart.
- Place the cart far from the edge of the driveway.
- Place carts out every week.
- Put trash in the recycling carts.

Don't

Objects obstructing cart.

Don't

Cart is too far from the curb.

For questions please call Veolia Environmental Services at (262) 679-0860.

Is Your Mailbox Safe?

With the warmer weather approaching, now is a good time to inspect your mailbox to ensure it is properly installed to City requirements. Doing so will help to avoid unnecessary problems with winter time plowing. Occasionally coming into contact with a mailbox is a common obstacle snowplow operators face during storm activities. While City employees are conscientious in performing their duties, there are occasions in which a snow plow will damage a mailbox that is too low and/or too close to the curb line. Setting your box to the height regulations and far enough back on the curb will minimize or eliminate any possible damage from snow removal operations.

A properly installed mailbox should not extend past the curb line and be 42 inches from the lowest point of the of the unit to the ground. Adding a newspaper box to the bottom or side of your mailbox increases the surface area of the mailbox.

For questions please call the Department of Public Works at 763-2060.

Compost Site Opens April 1

The Compost Site, located on Maryland Avenue, will reopen on April 1, 2010. The site is free of charge to City residents. You will be asked to show identification to verify you are a City of Burlington resident. There is an attendant on site at all times when the site is open.

Materials accepted include grass, leaves, garden waste, wood chips and brush. The City will not accept brush or logs greater than 5" in diameter. No plastic bags, plastic containers, or foreign debris of any kind will be allowed. No stumps or root balls will be allowed.

Contractors will be required to register at the Department of Public Works, 824 Milwaukee Avenue, which will allow the City to bill their business on a monthly basis. Contractor's using the compost site will be charged a dumping fee based on the type of truck and number of axles.

If you have any questions, please contact the Department of Public Works at 763-2060.

Police Chief Hired!

An extensive search for the Police Chief is now complete and former Brown Deer Lieutenant Peter Nimmer was sworn in as Burlington's top cop on March 2. Nimmer previously served in Brown Deer for 11 years as a patrol officer, sergeant, and lieutenant. He is also a graduate of the University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee with a masters and bachelors degree in Criminal Justice as well as the FBI National Academy. Prior to joining the Brown Deer police force Peter served in the Marines as a platoon sergeant.

The City of Burlington is proud to have Chief Nimmer watching over our city. Be sure to give him a warm welcome when you spot him around town!

Stand By Your Pan

How often has the doorbell rung or a child interrupted you while you were cooking, causing you to forget about the chicken you left sizzling on the stove - until smoke filled the house?

If this sounds familiar, I hope you'll read on, because you're running the risk of having a dangerous fire. John Niederer, Fire Inspector of the City of Burlington often talks to people about the ways they can stay safe in their homes. Too often, it is after they've suffered a damaging fire. It is our hope that people reading this article won't have to learn the hard way. If he could give just one fire warning, he'd say "stand by your pan!"

Why? Because cooking is the leading cause of home fires, according to the non-profit National Fire Protection Association (NFPA). Latest statistics from NFPA say that one out of every three home fires started in the kitchen and more than 140,000 fires a year were related to cooking. And guess why most of these fires occur? If you said it's leaving cooking unattended, you got it right.

Often when the Fire Department is called to a cooking-related fire, the residents state they only left the kitchen for a few minutes. Sadly, that's all it takes to go from routine to disaster. The bottom line is that there's really no safe period of time for the cook to step away from a hot stove. A few key points to remember:

- Never leave cooking food on the stovetop unattended, and keep a close eye on food cooking inside the oven.
- Keep cooking areas clean and clear of combustibles (e.g. potholders, towels, rag, drapes and food packaging).

- Keep children away from cooking areas by enforcing a "kid-free zone" of three feet around the stove. Keep pets from underfoot so you do not trip while cooking.
- Never use a wet oven mitt, as it presents a scald danger if the moisture in the mitt is heated.
- Always keep a potholder, oven mitt and lid handy. If a small fire starts in a pan on the stove, put on an oven mitt and smother the flames by carefully sliding the lid over the pan. Turn off the burner. Don't remove the lid until it is completely cool. Never pour water on a grease fire and never discharge a fire extinguisher onto a pan fire, as it can spray or shoot burning grease around the kitchen, actually spreading the fire.

- If there is an oven fire, turn off the heat and keep the door closed to prevent flames from burning you and your clothing.
- If there is a microwave fire, keep the door closed and unplug the microwave. Call the fire department and make sure to have the oven serviced before you use it again. Food cooked in a microwave can be dangerously hot. Remove the lids or other coverings from microwaved food carefully to prevent steam burns.

Please stay safe and "stand by your pan!"

Locks – The First Step in Home Safety

Making your home safer from crime doesn't necessarily mean having to install alarms – effective home security begins with properly locked doors. The installation and use of quality locks may be the most critical component in protecting your family and your possessions.

According to the National Crime Prevention Council, only half of us have deadbolts on all of our homes' exterior doors. Deadbolts withstand the prying, twisting, and pounding that traditional keyed knobs can't; so when you move into a new home or new apartment, install new dead-bolt locks if you own it or ask the manager to change them if you rent. Consider deadbolts that prevent drilling or picking, as well as those that have a long enough bolt so that the door cannot be pried open.

Additional Home Safety Tips

Don't give your house key to people you don't know such as parking attendants as duplicates can be made fast and easily.

Quality locks are useless if you don't use them so get into the habit of locking up even if you are only leaving for a few minutes.

Never hide a spare key on your property, burglars know all the hiding places.

When you are away from your home for several days, stop newspaper and mail delivery - also consider using light timers.

Don't be afraid to call law enforcement in investigate suspicious circumstances, unusual people, or strange noises. It's better to be safe than sorry.

New Business Retention & Growth Initiative Begins

In this "down economy" we all know of companies that have made sacrifices as well as the many needs this economy has developed amongst our local companies. The Racine County Economic Development Corporation (RCEDC) along with the City of Burlington will be undergoing a team effort to meet with industrial companies and retail companies, to provide every resource necessary to ensure their satisfaction and growth within the City.

To facilitate this process, RCEDC is acquiring a state-of-the-art business-growth and retention software program called the Synchronist Business Information System, which will provide us with a 360-degree view of the overall and individual needs of businesses in the City. After meeting with a company RCEDC will be able to gauge the business's concerns, goals, and challenges. A team will then be assembled (if necessary) to address specific needs and develop customized solutions. RCEDC will be able to connect businesses with resources available from all levels of government. Additionally, RCEDC's partners (the City of Burlington, Workforce Development Center, Small Business Development Center, Center for Advanced Technology and Innovation, among others) may be utilized as resources to address specific needs.

The goal of this program is to make things easier for business owners who may or may not know where, and with whom, to start with in regard to their basic issues or problems. The City of Burlington and RCEDC have teamed up on this effort in order that we may more accurately identify the resources we should be investing in based on the needs of our business community (incentives, loans, grants, public infrastructure, time, etc.) The broader mission of this effort is to make full use of the information companies will be providing to us and to drive measures that will yield both short- and long-term results.

RCEDC staff will begin contacting businesses during the next few months to ask for participation in this program. If you have immediate growth and expansion needs that need to be addressed please contact Tina Chitwood of RCEDC at 262-898-7422 or at tchitwood@racinecountyedc.org.

Grant Awards Mean Expanded Services at the Library

Burlington area residents will be able to take advantage of new technology and new programs thanks to the award of two Library Services and Technology Grants.

A $5,000 award will be used to support the library's young adult book club through the purchase of five Kindle electronic books. Additionally, the funds will be used to purchase five additional Kindles for the book club at Riverview Manor and the adult book club at the library. Kindles are small electronic devices that display books in regular or large print, and even read text out loud.

A second LSTA grant, Early Literacy and Computers, will provide two computers to the library's Children's Department that feature programs for children from age two to ten. These touch screen computers, which provided English and Spanish language versions, cover seven curriculum areas in child-friendly and exciting programs. The computers and furniture to accommodate them are valued at almost $8,000.

March 22

This book finds us traveling to Leningrad during WW II. The main character of "City of Thieves" by David Benioff is caught out at night after curfew with a new friend. In the morning, the two are granted a reprieve, conditional upon their acquiring a dozen eggs for the wedding cake of a powerful NKVD colonel's daughter within five days. Since all of Leningrad is staving off starvation by eating sawdust, rats, and boiled bindings of library books for the nutrient rich glue, this seems an impossible task. The next five days are filled with humor, terror, and new friendships.

April 26

We travel to Aberdeen County where Tiffany Baker's "The Little Giant of Aberdeen County", Truly, is born. Her journey through life, guided by secret recipes stitched into a quilt, makes for a fun book and both love and justice, at the end.

May 24

We travel Route 66 in "The Leisure Seeker" by Michael Zadoorian. This is the funny, poignant cross-country journey of a runaway couple in their twilight years determined to meet the end of all roads on their own terms. Come to the end and you'll say "Oh my God!"

We meet on Mondays, at 7 p.m. in the basement meeting room. Books are available at the library.
